Prices

ParsePort ApS cannot be held accountable for any errors in the prices stated on our website. Furthermore, we reserve the right to change the prices at our convenience.

Delivery

Parseport ApS will begin processing your task as soon as possible after it has been received. The timeframe of when you can expect to receive the XBRL file depends on the kind of file, you submit.

If you have submitted a class C (both medium and large) account, you can expect to have the files returned within 72 working-hours.

If you have submitted an IFRS financial statement, you can expect to have it returned within one week.

However, during our prime season from April to June, we do ask for patience.

Reimbursement

ParsePort ApS does not provide refunds.

Payment

The payment shall be made in advance, by credit card, through ParsePort's website at the time of a DK GAAP service request submission to ParsePort. Only service requests where there was a successful payment shall be considered submitted to ParsePort. Exception is made to pre-approved customers with individual login credentials which will receive a confirmation of their service request submission without upfront payment, and be invoiced upon the completion of the submitted DK GAAP task.

Warranty

We grant a 2-year warranty as granted by the Purchase Act. The right of complaint applies to errors in the XBRL file that are not due to customer input. The complaint does not apply to errors or damage caused by incorrect handling of the product and/or service. You must advertise in reasonable time after discovering the defect and/or error.

Any complaints should be directed at info@parseport.com

Cancellation

Your right of withdrawal ends when a ParsePort employee begins processing your order.

If you have sent all relevant documents to ParsePort – and still do not want us to complete the task, you can call our service team as soon as possible on +45 53 53 00 10.
